INSURANCE INDUSTRY VETERAN JOINS PMSI

DiFrancesco Named President of Medical Services and Equipment Division

Tampa, Florida (June 29, 2009) – PMSI, one of the nation’s largest providers of specialty products and services for the workers’ compensation market, today announced that Paul DiFrancesco has joined PMSI as President of its Medical Services and Equipment division.

“We are pleased that Paul has joined our growing team,” commented Eileen Auen, Chairman and CEO. “He has a deep understanding of the challenges facing the workers’ compensation market today. As such, he will provide significant insight and thought leadership that will help us further enhance our client relationships, technology infrastructure and product offering.”

As division President, DiFrancesco will be responsible for managing the financial performance of the business, championing a culture of growth and innovation, and enhancing the operational infrastructure in order to achieve the short and long-term goals of the Medical Services and Equipment business. His team will include Sally Harris, Vice President of Operations, an experienced industry executive who has held senior-level leadership positions with FCCI and Intracorp over the course of her 30-year career in the workers’ compensation market.

A respected, well-known insurance executive who brings over 30 years of experience in the workers’ compensation and property and casualty markets, DiFrancesco most recently served as President and Chief Executive Officer for AutoOne Insurance, a specialty auto insurance company owned by OneBeacon. His career has also included serving as Executive Vice President – Product and New Business Development for ACE-Ina Holdings, Vice President of St. Paul Travelers specialty auto company, Senior Vice President – Product Management at Bankers Insurance and Senior Vice President of Insurance Operations at Riscorp, Inc.
