EILEEN AUEN NAMED TO BUSINESS INSURANCE'S 2010 "WOMEN TO WATCH" LIST

Tampa, Florida (December 7, 2010) – PMSI, one of the nation's largest providers of specialty workers' compensation products and services, announced today that Eileen Auen, chairman and chief executive officer, has been named to the 2010 Women to Watch list by Business Insurance magazine.

Auen is among a group of 25 high-profile women executives who were chosen for this recognition. To select the group of honorees, Business Insurance editors evaluated the nominees based on their recent professional achievements, influence on the insurance industry and contributions to the advancement of women in business.

"I am honored to be among so many highly respected women who are making valuable contributions to the insurance industry," said Auen. "I am fortunate to lead a company of talented associates who are working together to deliver innovative workers' compensation solutions that facilitate lower costs and improved outcomes for both our clients and the injured workers they serve."

Auen is a recognized leader in the insurance industry with more than 20 years of experience in senior level positions. She has led PMSI, one of the largest providers of workers' compensation services related to Pharmacy, Medical Services and Equipment and Settlement Solutions since December 2008. Previously, she served as CEO of APS Healthcare, a leading provider of disease management services for the commercial and Medicaid markets. She also has held executive roles at Aetna, CIGNA and HealthNet.

Auen currently sits on the Board of Directors of ICF International, a global consulting and professional services firm. She received an MBA from the University of Virginia's Darden Graduate School of Business and a Bachelor's degree in economics and finance from Towson University.

The Women to Watch, including Auen, are featured in the December 7 print and online editions of *Business Insurance* and receive their awards today in Chicago, Illinois.
