DR. KENT TAKEMOTO NAMED WINNER OF WORKERS' COMPENSATION NOTABLE PEOPLE 2009

Selected by LexisNexis Workers' Compensation Law Center for Leadership in Solutions for Medicare Secondary Payer Issues

Tampa, Florida (February 2, 2010) – PMSI, a leading provider of settlement services for the workers' compensation market, announced today that the LexisNexis Workers' Compensation Law Center has selected Kent Takemoto, MD, President of PMSI Settlement Solutions, for its Workers' Compensation Notable People 2009 award.

Takemoto was named as a winner in the category of Industry Vendors, which recognizes service providers who have made a difference for the workers' compensation community in 2009. Throughout 2009, Takemoto led the development and deployment of innovative solutions to help PMSI's customers address the challenges of MMSEA Section 111 Mandatory Insurer Reporting (MIR) requirements as well as substantial changes in the way the prescription portion of Medicare Set-Asides (MSAs) are reviewed by the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services.

"PMSI is exceptionally proud of Kent for receiving this recognition," said Eileen Auen, Chairman and CEO. "In 2009, MIR requirements and changes in the way MSAs are reviewed were some of the biggest challenges in the industry. Kent continues to lead our Settlement Solutions team in the development of innovative solutions to help our clients respond to this changing landscape, and is an example of how PMSI is delivering innovation to the market."

In presenting the list of awardees, the LexisNexis Workers' Compensation Law Center stated, "These exceptional people have worked tirelessly on behalf of their clients and have made significant contributions this past year to the workers' compensation system and/or the workplace."
